

48th Annual

November 13-14

10am - 4pm

Historic Woodmont Park

407 Woodmont Ave. Temple Terrace

Welcome to Temple Terrace (TT), home of the Temple Orange! There are many interesting things to see here, including beautiful, historic Woodmont Park, which is lovingly maintained by the Temple Terrace Garden Club, the oldest club in TT. If you are standing in the park, gaze across the street and you will see the first fairway of the only 18-hole golf course in Florida listed in the National Register of Historic Places. Turn your head southward toward the dark grey building, the Woodmont Clubhouse, which was built in 1923, and originally served as a stable for horses, later a one room then multi-room schoolhouse, and today has been transformed into a lovely venue for weddings, parties, and meetings. 813-985-7769 for more info.

For two days, everything is about ART! Yes, the whole reason for this event is to celebrate (and purchase!) the magnificent treasures offered by more than 100 award winning fine artists, crafters, and culinary artists included in the artistic mix! The Temple Terrace Arts & Crafts Festival is a juried show, judged by professionals in the field (see page 3 for bios).

Lots of family fun is in store for you! Be sure to check out our entertainment schedule below as music and entertainment set the pace for our beautiful show and venue. On Saturday, we will honor our Veterans with a Ceremony at 11 am at the stage. A variety of food trucks are available for your snacking pleasure along with picnic tables so you can rest and enjoy our outdoor festivities.

Did you know we have exhibited children's art for over two decades? Our festival boasts the largest outdoor display of youth art and photography in the state of Florida! You'll want to see it for yourself. Fresh Views is the elementary art component, with Fresh Takes middle school cell phone photography joining the fun. Nearly 7,000 pieces have been exhibited for guests to enjoy. It is also a juried show.

FREE PUBLIC ART! Be sure to visit the children's arts and crafts area for some hands on projects that you and your children can enjoy - and the best part is that you can take them home!

We hope that our festival will bring you and your family many years of happy memories. Plus, what a great place to pick up that unique holiday gift!

The Temple Terrace Arts Council (Temple Terrace Community Arts Festival Incorporated) is a registered 501 (c) 3 nonprofit organization whose mission is to bring arts and culture to the community of Temple Terrace and beyond. This Council is supported by local volunteers with a love of art and art education and is located in beautiful Temple Terrace, Florida. Since 1973, the Council has produced the Temple Terrace Arts & Crafts Festival, a juried arts and crafts festival currently located in historic Woodmont Park each November. Attracting talented artisans from all over Florida and this year from as far away as Indiana, the annual festival is visited by thousands from more than 70 zip codes. In 2019 culinary arts were added to the mix. Food vendors, live bands and a Veterans' celebration make the Festival a wonderful mix of food, entertainment, music, and family fun for all!

Art en Blanc held in the spring is a community favorite. This elegant evening picnic began in 2012 and also takes place at the Woodmont Park, featuring entertainment, an art auction and a celebration of friendship and art like no other - all beneath a canopy of oak trees filled with twinkling lights.

Throughout the year the Council supports family and children's art and crafts activities through the recreation center as well as the public library. Art appreciation can be seen throughout the City of Temple Terrace where the Council shares art awareness through public art displays, mural paintings and sculptures in addition to support for art projects within the school systems. The Council supports its art initiatives primarily through fund raising events, grants and generous donations from patrons and sponsors.

About the Judges

ALIXANDRIA MARTIN

Working in a multitude of genres and media—for large scale work or murals, Alixandra Martin works mainly in acrylic and spray paint on canvas as well as oil and charcoal. She has completed murals in Sao Paolo, Toronto, the Florida Keys, San Francisco, and Southwest France. Mural and fine art clients include private residential work, and public and commercial ventures, including Fisher-Price, medical centers, restaurants, libraries and schools. In 2007, she illustrated the award winning children's book "The Scariest Dream Ever" and in 2017 completed illustrating a children's book depicting the history of the Kenan Center, a former residential Victorian mansion in Lockport, NY (c. 1800s) which is now an art, education and recreation non-profit. Alixandra has shown around the world and locally in solo as well as group shows.

LYNN MANOS

Lynn Manos is a Tampa-based visual artist working with a variety of media including painting, printmaking, drawing and video. She has been an Adjunct Professor at the University of Tampa from 2010-2016. Currently, Lynn serves on the Public Art Commission for the City of Tampa. Lynn was chosen for an August 2019 Artist Residency at The Morris Graves Foundation, in Loleta, CA. She was a resident artist at Zea Mays Printmaking in Northampton, MA in July 2021, June 2019, and June 2018. Lynn completed month-long residencies at the Scoula Graphic Internationale in Venice, Italy in May 2015, and July of 2013, 2011, 2010, and 2009. She received 2018 and 2009 Individual Artist Grants from the Arts Council of Hillsborough County and a 2014 Creative Capital Foundation Professional Development Workshop Grant for the State of Florida.

DANA WARNER

Dana Warner is the Development Director at the Carrollwood Cultural Center and also serves on the Board of Directors for the nonprofit Tempus Projects. She worked at Hillsborough County Public Schools for 20 years; seven years as Supervisor for K-12 Art Education, and 13 years as a high school art teacher specializing in sculpture and photography. Before working for the school district, Dana was the Assistant Curator of Education at the Polk Museum of Art in Lakeland, FL, and Curator of Education at the Florida Gulf Coast Art Center in Belleair Beach, FL. She earned a master's degree in Art Education and a bachelor's degree in Fine Arts from the University of South Florida.

Why? Because life is too short for boring food.

Jessi's Flaming Fruit Sauce has a delicate balance of heat and sweet.

Perfect as a finishing sauce or glaze for wings, meats, seafood, or grilled vegetables.

Pair with Cheese or as a dipping sauce for tempura or spring rolls.

Flaming Fruit Sauce even pairs beautifully with sweet dishes, such as swirled into brownies or cakes.
