

Yes – count us in! As a food vendor, we understand the following:

- ✓ That the Temple Terrace Arts Council (TTAC) will promote us in advance of the event of November 9th and 10th, 2024 at Woodmont Park in Temple Terrace
- ✓ That we will not be paid by the TTAC and that all monies collected by us at the event are ours to keep
- ✓ That we are not the exclusive food or beverage vendor

We commit to the following:

- ✓ To provide a list of the food type(s) we will sell so that TT Arts Council can promote us
- ✓ To utilize our social media and advertising outlets to promote our participation in the event
- ✓ To name TTAC and the City of Temple Terrace as additional insured on comprehensive liability policy (please provide before the event)
- ✓ To provide a rundown on our cooking method and safety measures to get approval from the TTFD
- ✓ To be set up by 9am and ready to sell food from 10am-4pm on November 9th and 10th at Woodmont Park
- ✓ To be self contained - our cooks, supplies, volunteers and money
- ✓ To be responsible for the immediate clean-up of the area during and after the Arts Festival
- ✓ To provide my own quiet generator and electrical cords
- ✓ I also acknowledge that all sales tax owed from the products I sell at the TT Community Arts & Crafts Festival is my sole responsibility to report and pay. A copy of my license will be provided in advance and prominently displayed in my booth.
- ☺ The TTAC is a registered nonprofit organization 501 (c) 3 with the State of Florida and therefore asks for a $75 donation to help us cover associated costs of the event – Cash, Check, or Payment via Venmo @templeterrace-artsCouncil accepted.
